BIOINFORMATICS PROGRAM
University of Saskatchewan

Project Class Application
(Note: Priority will be given to Honours students in Bioinformatics)

BINF 400.3
Advanced Techniques in Bioinformatics
Senior students will be introduced to research in an advanced area of Bioinformatics.

PREREQUISITES: BINF 300 and Permission of Director, Professor Tony Kusalik

STUDENT INFORMATION
(PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY & UNDERLINE LAST NAME)

Name: _____________________________________________ Student No: ____________

NSID: ___________ College: ___________ Credits Completed: ______________

Identify your Program (B.Sc. 4 yr. Honours, etc.): ________________ Major: ________________

*E-mail Address: __________________________________ Phone No.: __________________

*if your E-mail address changes at any time during T1T2, PLEASE inform us immediately!

Description of proposed project or areas of interest:
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________

Preferred Supervisor (if known): ________________________________

______________________________________________ Date

(Student’s Signature) (return completed application form to the Computer Science General Office at 176 Thorvaldson Bldg.)